Wood Fired Raku

You will learn basic hand-building techniques and produce at least one piece to be bisqued, glazed and Raku-fired. In the second session we will glaze fire our hand-built work in a wood-fired Raku kiln. Be prepared to cut some wood and stoke the kiln to reach a glowing temperature of 1950° F within an hour. The pots are pulled out red-hot and quickly cooled so that they can be completed in the afternoon. Rebecca is a KCAI graduate in ceramics with a minor in fiber. Please send $35 for materials and firing to Back Door Pottery (listed below). If it rains we will reschedule the second meeting. Bring a lunch or hotdogs to roast.
