Who we are:

As the leading provider of background checks, Validity Screening Solutions is the source for quality, industry knowledge and impeccable customer service. We employ experts in:

Compliance :

- State and federal legislation
- Records research and procedures
- Human resource polices and procedures

What we do:

We help businesses make confident decisions by separating fact from application.

How we do it:

We believe the only way to validate personal data is by going directly to the source of information instead of relying on secondhand databases. That means our clients receive the most accurate information available.

Industry firsts:

We've been in the business before it was a business. Our company was the first to:

- Offer a service promise
- Provide 24-hour online access to reports
- Create Invest in Tomorrow, a program that contributes financially to youth-related charities
- Establish a client orientation program
