Control Spuds:

Control Spuds are used on the same page as the Calendar. These spuds change the state of the calendar.

Month List Preview:

This option allows you to display your calendar in the above format, wherein the events are displayed according to the month, you can select a month and then view all the events taking place in that month.

View Chooser Unlabeled:

This option lets you to choose the kind of view you would like to see the your calendar in.
Calendar List View:

This option displays you all the sub calendars that are attached to the main calendar. By clicking on any of the sub calendar you can see the events displayed on that calendar.
Search:

This option lets you search an event from the calendar.

Filter:

This option lets you see the events based on the activity or description.
View Chooser:

This option lets you choose a view you like for your calendar.