This box shows the amount due after any Anticipated Financial Aid. A negative balance indicates a credit that may result in a refund. A positive number means that payment will need to be made.

Statement of Account as of 24-JUL-2012
 Roo, Casey

If you need to pay, this shows the minimum monthly payment. Keep in mind that you will be assessed finance charges if you only pay the minimum.

This box shows your payment due date. Make sure we get your payment by this date to avoid the late fee!

IMPORTANT MESSAGES

999 - The anticipated aid reflected on this bill is estimated. If your anticipated aid is less than your balance owed, you must make the required minimum payment. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction.

If you owe a balance, it will show here. To avoid finance charges, pay this whole amount by the due date. If this is a credit balance, review your Financial Aid and set up Direct Deposit. You might be getting a refund!

Here's that balance again. Tired of seeing it yet? This amount also shows up on your emailed billing notification (a sample is on the back of this page). Make sure you look at your actual bill to verify the transactions that make up this amount (particularly pending aid) are accurate.

This tells you the date that this bill was generated. Transactions after this date are going to show up on next month's statement. You can always see current activity on Pathway.
