People teaching people Since 1970

This is Communiversity—Spring 2006 issue #122 which is published five times per year in August, October, January, March and May. Each issue of Communiversity introduces you to a world of people and ideas through classes, events and services unique to this area. Today there is no other metropolitan area in the entire country with an all-volunteer program that offers such a variety of classes at our nominal price. Whether you take a class, offer a class, or advertise a seminar or business, Communiversity is a great place to reach people who enjoy doing, learning and experiencing. You can find us at: Communiversity/UMKC, 5327 Holmes, KCMO 64110 or www.umkc.edu/commu.

Thanks:
Kansas City Metropolitan Libraries, Westport-Roanoke Community Center, UMKC, Westport Presbyterian Church, City in Motion, Waldeaux Spirits, Iliki Café, Tea Drops, Hillcrest Community Center, African American History and Culture House and to the many individuals who have shared their homes and businesses. Communiversity depends upon the good will of individuals and organizations from both the University and the community in providing meeting facilities for classes. We thank you for your donations of rooms.

Special Thanks To:
The many volunteers who teach our classes, distribute our catalogs and register our participants.
The Communiversity Advisory Board, the U-News, Regina Compernolle, Bob Hise, Todd Hanna, Jody Jeffries, Rita Messina, Tena Belovich, Marcia Roberts and the Student Life Staff.
