

Notice

This notice is being provided as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the job opportunity described below. Any person wishing to comment may provide documentary evidence to the Certifying Officer, U.S. Department of Labor; Employment and Training Administration; Office of Foreign Labor Certification; 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Room N-5311; Washington, DC 20210.

Assistant Professor - Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology in Kansas City, MO

JOB DUTIES: The Department of Criminal Justice & Criminology invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position. Substantive teaching and research areas are open. Responsibilities include:

- scholarly research/publishing,
- pursuit of extramural funding,
- high-quality undergraduate and graduate teaching, and service to students, the School, the university, and the discipline.

Successful candidates will demonstrate commitment to community engagement in research and teaching, and will work effectively with non-/traditional students from varied backgrounds.

This is a 9-month (academic year), full-time, benefit-eligible, tenure-track, ranked faculty appointment.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS: Ph.D. by start date in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or a closely related field. Advanced All But Dissertation (ABD) applicants will be considered. Successful candidates will demonstrate commitment to community engagement in research and teaching, and will work effectively with non-/traditional students from varied backgrounds.

Must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States.

Reply to:

Seth Fallik
Chair and Associate Professor
Humanities and Social Sciences
The Curators of the University of Missouri
University of Missouri-Kansas City

Cherry Hall 451
5030 Cherry St.
Kansas City, MO 64110

Inhouse Media Text