ELIGIBILITY:

Under federal United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) regulation 8 CFR 214.2(f)(16), an F-1 student is only eligible for reinstatement if all of the following conditions apply to the student:

- 1) Has not been out of status for more than five (5) months at the time of filing the request for reinstatement
- 2) Or, the failure to file within the (5) month period was the result of exceptional circumstances and that the student filed the request for reinstatement as promptly as possible under these exceptional circumstances
- 3) Does not have a record of repeated or willful violations of [USCIS] regulations
- 4) Is currently pursuing, or intending to pursue, a full course of study in the immediate future at the school which issued the Form I-20
- 5) Has not engaged in unauthorized employment
- 6) Is not deportable on any ground other than section 237(a)(1)(B) or (C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act
- 7) Establishes to the satisfaction of the USCIS, in detailed showing, either that:
  - The violation of status resulted from circumstances beyond the student's control; [such circumstances might include serious injury or illness, closure of the institution, a natural disaster, or inadvertence, oversight, or neglect on the part of the DSO, but do not include instances where a pattern of violations or where a willful failure on the part of the student resulted in the need for reinstatement]
  - OR, the violation relates to a reduction in the student's course load that would have been within a DSO's power to authorize, and that failure to approve reinstatement would result in extreme hardship to the student.

REQUIREMENTS OF REINSTATEMENT APPLICATION:

- 1) You must be enrolled as a full-time student
- 2) If you have any on-campus employment, you may not continue
- 3) If you have any off-campus work, it is automatically cancelled.

CONSEQUENCES OF REINSTATEMENT DENIAL:

INA § 222(g) (overstay and visa cancellation) and § 212(a)(9)(B) (unlawful presence) are two penalty provisions that can be activated if a request for reinstatement is denied. Since reinstatement by definition consists of a finding by USCIS that there has been a status violation, the denial of a reinstatement application would in all likelihood be considered a "formal finding of a status violation... resulting in the termination of the period of stay authorized by the Attorney General." Under the most recent guidance on the applicability of INA 222(g) and § 212(a)(9)(B), the reinstatement denial would have the following effects, as of the date of the denial:

- The visa that the student used to enter the United States is automatically cancelled;
- The student is permanently limited to applying for nonimmigrant visas in the future only in his or her country of citizenship or permanent residence;
- The student will begin accumulating days of "unlawful presence." If the student remains in the United States after the denial for over 180 days, he or she will be barred from returning to the United States for three years; if he or she remains after the denial for one year or more, he or she will be barred from returning the United States for ten years.

Submit your I-539 application and all supporting documents to the USCIS online application portal: <https://www.uscis.gov/i-539>

PLEASE BE AWARE:

- Please note that reinstatements may take anywhere from 12 to 15 months or more depending on USCIS.
- A receipt notice will be sent to you with a case number assigned. You may then use the case number to check the status of the application from USCIS website: <https://egov.uscis.gov/casestatus/landing.do>
- If your application is approved, USCIS will send your I-20 and Form I-797A (reinstatement approval notice).
- If you are notified that your Reinstatement to Status has been approved, make an appointment with the DSO that assisted you so that s/he may copy your new I-20 that has been stamped by USCIS and your new I-94 card
