

Rozella Marie Church

Portrayed on the top right side of the mural, holding a branch

Rozella Marie Church was a Kansas City native and a junior student during Quintanilla's residency at UKC. She received her BA and MA degrees from UKC, and worked as a schoolteacher for thirty-six years. During World War II, Rozella served in the United States Marine Corps. She enjoyed volunteering at the VA Hospital, the Jupiter Lighthouse, the Dubois House, and the Historical Society. Later in life, she moved to Florida where she passed away in 2017. She was 96 years old.
