Leveraging Learning Online

Cheryl Bielema, Instructional Development Specialist, University of Missouri-St. Louis

Jyoti Pande, Senior Instructional Designer, St. Louis Community College, Meramec
Our goals for today

- Share strategies at our institutions for engaging faculty in a dialogue about teaching improvements (i.e., student engagement, assessment and feedback, active learning)

- Hear your ideas and what has worked for you
Examples

- Annual series of Conversations about Teaching and Technology
- Regional Conference: Focus on Teaching and Technology
- Technical assistance for faculty
  - “Early” access to computer accounts for new faculty
  - Mid-Semester Feedback System
  - Photo rosters available in CMS
- Longitudinal study of technology integration in courses
Examples

- Learn and Lunch programs
- Learning Circles
- Small Group Book Discussion: “It Works for me” and “What the Best College Teachers do”
- Teaching Squares
- Online Blackboard Institute
What has worked for you in leveraging learning, online?
Contact Information

Cheryl Bielema, Ph.D.
University of Missouri-St. Louis
Center for Teaching & Learning
http://www.umsl.edu/ctl

Jyoti Pande, Ph.D.
St. Louis Community College, Meramec
Center for Support of Teaching and Learning http://www.stlcc.edu/mc/services/cstl