I. Policy Statement

- Eligible students may withdraw from their classes during the withdraw schedule period that is provided in the Academic Calendar.
- After the fourth week through the eighth week students will receive an automatic W on their transcript.
- After the eighth week, students will be assessed academically and, if they are failing at the time of withdrawal, they will be given a grade of WF (withdrawn failing) at the discretion of the faculty member. A WF is not calculated in the grade-point average.
- After the twelfth week students must petition their home academic unit before being allowed to withdraw from a course.
- Students who want to withdraw from all of their classes must follow the Total Withdraw Policy.
- Students in 8-week courses follow a similar schedule. See the academic calendar for specific dates.

II. Reason for Policy

This policy was developed to support student academic success and to provide consistent, quality delivery of academic programs and services.
